PRETRIAL HEARING

Date: October 5, 2021

Time: 3:00 p.m.

Place: Courtroom 5 – 17th Floor

Hon. Edward M. Chen

TRIAL DATE

November 1, 2021

1 Plaintiff SinCo Technologies Pte. Ltd, (“SINCO”) hereby provides objections to
 2 Defendants’ designation of written discovery. SINCO first objects to Defendants’ use of this
 3 material in any way that fails to acknowledge and follow the designations of this information as
 4 either confidential or AEO, pursuant to the Protective Order in this case, and take appropriate
 5 measure to treat them as designated.

6
 7 I. OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF SINCO TECHNOLOGIES PTE LTD.’S RESPONSE TO 8 DEFENDANT XINGKE ELECTRONICS (DONGGUAN) CO., LTD.’S FIRST REQUEST FOR
 9 ADMISSIONS

10 SINCO objects to the blanket designation of all 153 response to Request for Admissions,
 11 without making any effort to identify those responses that are related or necessary to any pending
 12 claim or defense. SINCO objects to the use of any of these responses without a complete 13 production of the total of the response to avoid divorcing context or misrepresenting the 14 information SINCO provided. SINCO objects to the extent that many of these responses are 15 duplicative of deposition or live testimony and are therefore unnecessary.

16 SINCO objects to the Defendants unsupported legal theory that if the SINCO mark had
 17 become abandoned in CHINA, it would be abandoned worldwide. This premise is unsupported by
 18 the law. See Restatement Third, Unfair Competition § 30, comment a (1995) (“Common law
 19 priority in a particular geographic area is thus lost if the designation has been abandoned by the
 20 owner in that geographic area.”). As a matter of logic, there is no reason why trademark rights
 21 cannot be abandoned only in a given trade area. If nationwide rights can be abandoned, then
 22 territorially limited rights can also be abandoned. § 17:22. Abandonment of rights in limited
 23 territorial area, 3 McCarthy on Trademarks and Unfair Competition § 17:22 (5th ed. Sept. 2021
 24 Update) SINCO objects to use of RFA nos. 5-9 and 130-134 as irrelevant to any claim or defense
 25 and the fact to be admitted or denied is irrelevant whatever the answer.

26 SINCO objects to use of RFA responses 11-129; 135-140; 142-147 based on the written
 27 objects provided in the responses, or otherwise relevant to any pending claim or defense.
 28

II. OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF SINCO TECHNOLOGIES PTE LTD.'S RESPONSES TO DEFENDANT XINGKE ELECTRONICS (DONGGUAN) CO., LTD.'S FIRST INTERROGATORIES TO SINCO TECHNOLOGIES PTE LTD.

SINCO asserts the written objections provided in the responses as provided on March 15, 2019. SINCO objects to the use of any of these responses without a complete production of the total of the response to avoid divorcing context or misrepresenting the information SINCO provided under Federal Rule of Evidence 106. For Example, in response to No. 1, Defendants attempt to cherry pick some of the objections and ignore the complete response: No. 1 at 5:20-23, 6:2-9:21.

SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Identify documents that define the role, status, and responsibilities of all Sinco's employees who are embedded with another company since April 27, 2000.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Responding Party incorporates its General Objections as if fully restated herein. Responding Party objects to Interrogatory as vague and ambiguous since it fails to define "embedded" and "another company," since broad interpretation of the term or phrases would lead to irrelevant information and impermissible scope of discovery. Treating Interrogatory as calling only as to those employees who are/were Responding Party/SINCO employees since 2005 and were placed at a separate location to oversee the work being conducted for SINCO as to U.S. customer projects (rather than any company or any employee or at any time). Responding Party also objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it invades Responding Party's and/or a third party's rights to privacy, and other privileges protected by the United States Constitution, as well as foreign, federal and state law. Responding Party further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent that it calls for information of third parties which is neither relevant to the subject matter of the action, nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

The remaining designations, ignore the initial interrogatory or the complete objections, to the extent they reference them at all.

For example, No. 5 at 31:4-15, 31:18-27, 32:16-33:16, ignores the substantive response at 32:1-15. Thereafter, Defendants maintain this practice of ignoring the request and objections, and then resort to citing cumulative responses out of context, where the substantive information identified is identical for each:

No. 6 at 34:13-15.

13 responds as follows: The term "parent company," when read in the context of the whole of the
14 Second Amended Complaint is referring to JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO.,
15 LTD., as SINCO has had no involvement or knowledge of Sincoo.

No. 7 at 35:10-12.

10 responds as follows: The term "parent company," when read in the context of the whole of the
11 Second Amended Complaint is referring to JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO.,
12 LTD., as SINCO has had no involvement or knowledge of Sincoo.

No. 8 at 36:22-24.

21 Subject to, and without waiving the foregoing objections and privileges, Responding Party
22 responds as follows: The term "parent company," when read in the context of the whole of the
23 Second Amended Complaint is referring to JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO.,
24 LTD., as SINCO has had no involvement or knowledge of Sincoo.

SINCO objects to designation response to No. 9 as a violation of Federal Rule of Evidence 106. The rule is based on two considerations. The first is the misleading impression created by taking matters out of context. The second is the inadequacy when delayed to a point later in the trial. Defendants' simply ignore bad evidence:

1 On April 26, 2018 and May 4, 2018, defendant SinCo Electronics (Dongguan) Co.'s PRC
2 trademarks (Registration Nos. 8607396 and 8607476) were invalidated pursuant to Article 31,
3 Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 45 and Article 46 of the PRC pre-amended Trademark Law based
4 on "[SinCo Electronics (Dongguan) Co.'s] misappropriation, registration and use of the trademark
5 "SinCo" without authorization from SinCo.

6 The Trademark Review and Adjudication Board (the "TRAB") in the Trademark Office
7 of the State Administration for Industry & Commerce of the PRC cancelled the registered
8 "SinCo" marks on two grounds (1) SinCo had priority on the logo, and (2) defendant SinCo
9 Electronics (Dongguan) Co. had submitted a fabricated Design Contract as evidence of ownership
10 of the mark. The perjury was revealed by the Design Contract between defendant SinCo
11 Electronics (Dongguan) Co. and Dongguan Humen Yuan Su Computer Graphic Design Service
12 Business which was dated July 1, 2005.

SINCO objects to the designation of Nos. 13 and 14 at 46:28, as duplicative and on the

1 grounds referenced above as incomplete under FRE 106 and subject to the objections. SINCO
 2 asserts that designations for 14-24 are likewise improper as incomplete under FRE 106 and
 3 subject to the objections.

4 III. OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF SINCO TECHNOLOGIES PTE LTD.'S AMENDED RESPONSES
 5 TO DEFENDANT XINGKE ELECTRONICS (DONGGUAN) CO., LTD.'S FIRST REQUEST FOR
 6 ADMISSIONS.

7 SINCO objects to the designations of Amended Responses to RFA Nos. 5, 6, 142, 143,
 8 144, 145 subject to the written objections therein. SINCO objects to the extent that many of these
 9 responses are duplicative of deposition or live testimony and are therefore duplicative.

10 SINCO objects to the Defendants unsupported legal theory that if the SINCO mark had
 11 become abandoned in CHINA, it would be abandoned worldwide. This premise is unsupported by
 12 the law. See Restatement Third, Unfair Competition § 30, comment a (1995) (“Common law
 13 priority in a particular geographic area is thus lost if the designation has been abandoned by the
 14 owner in that geographic area.”). As a matter of logic, there is no reason why trademark rights
 15 cannot be abandoned only in a given trade area. If nationwide rights can be abandoned, then
 16 territorially limited rights can also be abandoned. § 17:22. Abandonment of rights in limited
 17 territorial area, 3 McCarthy on Trademarks and Unfair Competition § 17:22 (5th ed. Sept. 2021
 18 Update) SINCO objects to use of RFA nos. 5-6 and 142-145 as irrelevant to any claim or defense
 19 and the fact to be admitted or denied is irrelevant whatever the answer.

20 IV. OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF SINCO TECHNOLOGIES PTE LTD.'S AMENDED RESPONSES
 21 TO DEFENDANT XINGKE ELECTRONICS (DONGGUAN) CO., LTD.'S FIRST
 22 INTERROGATORIES TO SINCO TECHNOLOGIES PTE LTD.

23 SINCO objects to the designation of Amended Response to Interrogatories No. 15 as 24 incomplete under FRE 106 and subject to the objections.

25 SINCO objects to the designation of Amended Response to Interrogatories Nos. 6 - 8 at 26 6:9-16 as incomplete under FRE 106 and subject to the objections stated and just as before
 27 Defendants' designation is duplicative:
 28

No. 6 at 6:9-16.

9 responds as follows: The term “parent company,” referred to in paragraph 23 of the Complaint is
 10 referring to JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO., LTD., as SINCO’s has alleges,
 11 on information and belief that Sinco Electronics (Dongguan) Co., Ltd.; Xingke Electronics
 12 (Dongguan) Co., Ltd.; Xingke Electronics Technology Co., Ltd.; Sincoo Electronics Technology
 13 Co., Ltd.; Jinlong Holdings; WenZhou Runzhe Equity Investment Fund Partnership Enterprise;
 14 and Xiamen XingKe Electronics Co. Ltd., are JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO.,
 15 LTD’s subsidiaries. The only marketing material that SinCo has would be in the form of websites
 16 previously produced in this litigation.

No. 7 at 7:11-19.

11 responds as follows: The term “parent company,” referred to in paragraph 23 of the Complaint is
 12 referring to JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO., LTD., as SINCO’s has alleges,
 13 on information and belief that Sinco Electronics (Dongguan) Co., Ltd.; Xingke Electronics
 14 (Dongguan) Co., Ltd.; Xingke Electronics Technology Co., Ltd.; Sincoo Electronics Technology
 15 Co., Ltd.; Jinlong Holdings; WenZhou Runzhe Equity Investment Fund Partnership Enterprise;
 16 and Xiamen XingKe Electronics Co. Ltd., are JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO.,
 17 LTD’s subsidiaries. SinCo is aware that JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO.,
 18 through Mr. Tjoa and Mr. Ping authorized and directed the use of the SinCo Marks by its 19 subsidiaries in the United States without permission or approval of Plaintiff.

No. 8 at 9:9-17.

9 responds as follows: The phrase “is under common ownership and managment,” referred to in 10 paragraph 27 of the Complaint is referring to JINLONG MACHINERY & ELECTRONICS CO.,
 11 LTD., as SINCO’s has alleges, on information and belief that Sinco Electronics (Dongguan) Co.,
 12 Ltd.; Xingke Electronics (Dongguan) Co., Ltd.; Xingke Electronics Technology Co., Ltd.; Sincoo
 13 Electronics Technology Co., Ltd.; Jinlong Holdings; WenZhou Runzhe Equity Investment Fund
 14 Partnership Enterprise; and Xiamen XingKe Electronics Co. Ltd., are JINLONG MACHINERY &
 15 ELECTRONICS CO., LTD’s subsidiaries. SinCo is aware that JINLONG MACHINERY &
 16 ELECTRONICS CO., through Mr. Tjoa and Mr. Ping authorized and directed the use of the 17 SinCo Marks by its subsidiaries in the United States without permission or approval of Plaintiff.
